

International Photographic Contest "Heritage, Image and Industrial Landscape"

2010

Heritage, Image and Industrial Landscape

The Association of Industrial Archeology "Máximo Fuertes Acevedo" INCUNA is holding the VII International Photographic Contest about Industrial Heritage in order to bring the light the remarkable and miscellaneous field of the Archeology and the Industrial Heritage by means of the universal artistic language, as it is the photographic art.

1. This time the central theme of competition will be "Heritage, Image and Industrial Landscape" in order to disseminate, evaluate and project the image of a material wealth that we have to save from oblivion and destruction, preserving it for future generations.

Within these thematic topics we can include: the industrial heritage sites and cultural landscapes, in an attempt to analyze the constituent elements and the interaction between them, the relationships established between the natural environment, industrial landscape, and human and industrial activities. In this time we enclose such elements as product design, iconography, the image of the industry and visual culture that these activities have generated in their external projection.

2. Participation is open to all People with Independence of its age and nationality. Both, professional and amateur photographers can take part in the contest.

3. Size, presentation and technique:

• The works will be presented in photographic paper, without framing and without passe-partout, with a minimum size of 20x25 cm and maximum of 30x40 cm. At the same time, it will be delivered a CD that includes the digital file of the photographs with the following characteristics: tiff or jpg format (with the minimum compression), RGB, 300 ppi, size of 20 cm. in the larger side.

• The works should be original and unpublished. Each author will be able to present a maximum of five B/W photographs or colour ones, accompanied by a brief text of five lines that explains each work. The original that were not adjusted to the proposed theme will not participate in the contest.

• In order to keep the confidentiality, the original works will be presented with a title or generic motto that will appear outside a closed envelope and on the back of each photograph. Inside the envelope the name the author, his/her direction and telephone, e-mail address as well as a photocopy of his/her identity card or passport will be included.

• The deadline for acceptance of complete works, conclude on August 20th, 2010.

4. Information and submission of works:

INCUNA

C/ La Muralla, 3, entresuelo

33202 Gijón. Asturias. España

Teléfono 985 31 93 85

Fax: 985 31 93 85

Contacto: Henar Turrado Fernández

incuna@telecable.es

Indicar en el sobre:

Certamen Internacional de Fotografía 2010

Att.: Henar Turrado Fernández

5. The rewarded photographs will form part of the documentary file of the Association of Industrial Archaeology "Maximo Fuertes Acevedo" INCUNA which reserves the copyright for its activities of promotion of the industrial heritage provided the non-profit making and the author's name is mentioned. The rest of the works will remain in deposit for a year, during which, if the organization thought it convenient, they will be able to be object of exposition and of reproduction with advertising aims. After this time, if the author wants, he/she would request their refund, otherwise they will become part of the documentary file of the previously mentioned association.

6. The jury will be appointed by the organization, chosen among photography professionals, historians and personalities from the culture world. The jury's decision will be made public to the mass media during the opening of the exhibition and awards ceremony to be held in Gijón on September 28, 2010.

7. The jury, whose selection decision will be final, reserves the right to interpret the present rules.

8. A first prize of 600 Euros (consisting in a gift voucher from El Corte Inglés) that shall not be declared void and two accesit of 300 Euros each one. Its amounts will be submitted to taxes required by Law, save exemption granted by the competent organ of the Administration.

9. Participation in the competition implies acceptance of these Rules.

Organize:

Collaborate:

